the day the ash
blacked out the sun.

No Compromise

The things you say eat at me
The war unleashed by your kind
Your ideals I despise
Fools that fill up with false

Pride + as you spread your lies
Hide + behind a wall of pride
Blind + as you march in time
You are blind you the web of your own lies
Pride + you embrace your fear
Hide + hold your weapon high
Blind + to the sands of time
You are blind you the web of your own lies
Pride + Racial hate filled tears
Hind + in the sea of your kind
Blind + learn to hate and lie
You are blind to the web of your own lies
Pride + as you spread your lies
Hide + behind a wall of pride
Blind + as you march in time
You are blind you the web of your own lies

Fucking Die

Your fear runs deep, your wounds they bleed
Immoral insect, infect the world with your seed
Burrow in deep, the pile of shit your breed

Infection the reaction of your lies

Hate spreads on the words you say alone... you fear the world outside you
False sense of security
Strap on the hand of hate fed fools
The lies spread your world of fear
Escalate your ignorant perception

Past words how they haunt
They will plague like gash from the past
Spread your legs his words seed you kind
Feed on the greed of past nations speech

The things repeat eat at me
Your words a reflection of their system
The past learnt lessons pass you by
You envision a utopian wisdom
Embrace a world of lies
Your words a reflection of their vision

Beastial Insemination

Splicing genes for mass consumption
Mutant streams of mass production
All the world things are mapped for conjunction Playing god is our dysfunction
Lethal brews mixed in presumption
That the beings will now function
Trade our ethics for corruption
Splicing genes for mass consumption

Genetic creatures spawned from twisted minds
Mutant features grown to serve mankind

Distorted, disfigured, exploiting all its features
Science moves on to another creature
Creation, mutation, unwanted asphyxiation
Some will suffer from their inception
The rancid, implanted, the cause of the infection
Foreign organs have been rejected
Infected, corrupted, the experiment unwanted Dispose of the beings useless carcass

Science leaping breed the future find
Malignant seeping testing has no line
Science retries to breed the future find

Professors of mass production
Enslave beings for their corruption
Existence of our production
For masses of consumption
Believe science the work it has done
We need science the work is not done

Witness what we've done, twisted and not informed
Science the reason why we believe and endure
Science playing god laughing at life's reward
No need to question why Science will make us a cure

The Day the Ash Blacked Out the Sun.

The Destruction of our beloved Earth has only been a vision
In the imagination of her children that will soon bear to witness The extermination of her shelter by fiery penetration
Summoned by universal forces to end out meek existence

Violation, her submission force out the choking gases Toxic cleansing, rains of acid purge her surface of all its matter
Like a cancer plagues of fire begin to snuff out the screaming masses

Die!

Tears of pain fall from clouds of doom
Fragmentation, gashes open up her womb
Sterilization, our home is now our tomb

Fires liquefy the solid surface
Humanities hard fought wars
Serve no purpose

Our existence snuffed out by unseen forces
Planet killers swim in a sea of darkness
Our disagreements will not make a difference
When the time has come for the ash to black out the sun
Loss of wisdom, war now our mission
Mankind's last obsession is blind of true reflection

The Zone

They haunt me the voices I hear inside
Corrupting with all the things they say
The visions will take control of me
If I let them inside my head
The voices sing a sweet symphony
Of personalities they want me to be
The songs corrupt my every fiber to fight desire
When I give in the will take control of me

They reside locked up they dwell inside Shocked awake my body they will try to take lose control they break free from their call Ripped inside the torture to keep them let them out

Electric awakening, the voices inside
No longer they hide, Controlling
The voices break free, their visions define
The course of my conscience mind
The path that they take, unleashing the hate
From their cryonic sleep state
The shock of therapy awakens their rage
Break from the cage, rampage

My body they rape switching control
Playing their role, unloading
Regain control, awaken to find
Blame of their crimes rests upon me

Resistance to their words and visions
Was not enough to waken me
Black from their interference
Their will took control of me
Victim of my bodies actions
At the mercy of their beckoning
I plea to all my innocence
None they grant to me

Victim with no vision of peace
They rot my mind with words that bleed
Visions of what they did with me
My mind and body will not be free

They haunt me with visions of their insanity
Why won't the voices silence and let me be They take my sanity, why won't they let me be Forever I see the visions of why they've imprisoned me

Behind Cold Eyes

Lost I'm trapped inside my own mind
Fear that I have left me body behind
Why won't they try to wake me

Asphyxiation + the bag restricts my breathing
Refrigeration + the cold now numbs my feeling
Discoloration + skin starts degenerating
Transformation + as life slips away from me

I am fine but they don't hear my wisdom
They are blind to what's inside of me
They won't find that my mind has awakened
Out of time my body lies slumbering

They will mistake my stillness for my life passing
I'll be the victim unwanted in their bureaucracy
Free to seal my fate pull they plug they don't want to see
They place me on the table and start the autopsy

Oh no they come to take me away
My soul does not want to be set free
I scream but they are not listening
In the cold I go for processing

Motionless state start before he wakens
Process his fate begin the exploration
Organs are stripped for the highest bidder
His chest now zipped on with the show

My Brother's Keeper

Desolation, time to fight for the final time
Eradication, countless numbers die
Call to war, the bravest one leads the horde
Up the wall into the battle zone

Are you prepared to die?
Your brother can not save your life
Lost in cannon fire
In the smoke a blade tears at your throat

Run and hide, try to save your life
Panicked flight, the general won't deny your time
"The fear of combat won't save your life
So grab your weapon and stand and fight"

Generals play their game, strategy at mind
Trapped in the minefield, soldiers lead to find
The strategy for mankind, soldiers fight and fall
Victors make their claim, loser returns the pain

My brother's keeper won't remember me
My brother's keeper the general that lost the game

Raping Under God

You are wanted cute little boy
Apply within the house of almighty god
Bring in your tight ass
You are late for bible class
Bring me my whip
Tie you to a crucifix

Poor little preacher boy his ass a swollen toy
Bow down before your god inserting holy rod
Do what I say it's the holy way
You knees are not to prey I will have my way

Raping under god
Serve the holy cross
Raping under god
Jesus wants to watch

Preacher laughs, tied to cross
Using god for his cause
Crucifix ritual
Pound young ass 'til it's full

Crucifixion, Ritual of his infliction

Force fed, Brutal ritual
Young head, for the pleasure of the sicko

Do what I say under god
Do what I say on the cross
Do what I say obey god
Do what I say Jesus will watch

U.N.Holy War

Night and day the politicians plot their game
Strike the map and let their greed decide
There's oil to take worlds away they decide their fate
Drop the blade chop off the head and make the claim

This has now become A war for a piece for prime land and real estate
Purge all the gates no matter how many lives it takes Take all they want all the life they rape
This has now become unholy

The world they rape they'll leave in vain
And dust their hands from all the pain
They'll make the stand for their own land
And rule the sand with iron hand

We turn away, the world is blind
From all the pain, unholy

They get their way, The worlds resource
For theirs to take, our last mistake

The world will pay for their consuming ways

They decide who's liable for the curse they have caused War hands point the finger to those who let them down
They cover from the world just what they know
Oblivious to the world what lies beyond what they show

Now's the time to take control or suffer from the actions we make today

Sewn By Numbers

Impress me, you are what I want to be Come with me, I'll love you for eternity
Help set me free, bring out my beauty
Transforming, your skin completes me

I awake before dawn to hunt for the key
A 36*24 is what I want to see
The ideal true form is my fantasy
Another piece to be sewn work soon complete
Alone I creep in the dark quite and listening
As her footsteps will mark where she's wandering
Try not to follow too close so she doesn't discover me
Her figure slips in the park as I'm salivating

Now I dive at the chance before she starts to scream
Grabbing her from behind she starts struggling
Her fear breaks into sweat forehead glistening
I whisper for her to stop but she's not listening
My grip beginning to slip from her maneuvering
I quickly pull out my blade to end her suffering
And swiftly slash at her throat, blood sprays over me
As I watch her go down it arouses me

Quickly now I begin her mutation
Another piece to be sewn in my creation
My master plan now becomes recreation
I take to killing like its just masturbation

Its just masturbation now

Now I wander the streets for another
Victim for my rage, a grin slapped on my own face
I live for slaughter, transform yet another
Into my shape, her skin takes my place

Fill in space with new face
Transforming me from masculinity
My dream is now reality
